I have been a professional photographer since 1998, specializing in photographic art and fine art portraiture. I also am passionate and committed to travel photography and exploring new technologies as photography evolves in the digital world that surrounds us.

Professional Enrichment:

- Since 1998 I have never stopped learning about the artistic possibilities of photography. I have studied with a wide range of fine art photographers such as Joyce Tenneson, Mary Ellen Marks, Robert and Shana ParkeHarrison, Jock Sturges, Josephine Saccabo, Joyce Wilson, Keith Carter, Jennifer Thoreson, Kamil Vojnar, and Maggie Taylor and have taken workshops nationally from Texas to Oregon, and New York to Colorado; internationally, I've studied photography in France, Ireland, Russia, Costa Rica, Mexico, and Greece.
