Artist/Creative

ABOUT ME

I'm an artist known for bold, vibrant paintings that range from everyday objects to iconic imagery. After starting my career in fashion, I returned to art to reconnect with my creative voice, inspired in part by the memory of my late dad. I work across mixed media—including acrylic, gouache, spray paint, and oil pastels—with a focus on color, energy, and storytelling.

Skill

- Mixed media painting
- Color theory and bold composition
- Concept development and visual storytelling
- Creative direction and ideation
- Texture building and layering techniques
- Commission-based work & client collaboration
